REFUNDS

- All processed refunds will be paid to the nominated bank account in Australian Dollars only.
- You have the right to appeal against any decision made regarding the refund process.

Where a written application is received for a Course Refund and Cancellation, GCA staff will follow the following guidelines:

- I. Should GCA's Management withdraw its offer or fail to provide the programme offered or terminate its course delivery before or after the study period commences, GCA will calculate the refund amount according to the specified method for working out the amount of unspent prepaid fees.
- II. Should GCA's Management withdraw a student from a course because the student has seriously breached international student visa conditions, no refund for tuition fees for the current study period will apply.
- III. GCA's staff shall ensure that students who dispute GCA's student default or refund and cancellation procedures are provided with access to the GCA complaints and appeals procedure.

Cancellation for non-commencement of study, poor progress, attendance, non-payment and/or student misconduct will have no refunds.

There is a cooling off period of 3 calendar days from the date of enrolment (Cooling Off Period). If a student cancels enrolment during the Cooling Off Period, they are entitled to receive a full refund less the application fee. Subject to any rights under Consumer Law, no refunds will be provided outside of the Cooling Off Period apart from the circumstances listed in the table. However, a student will not be entitled to a refund in the Cooling Off Period if the student has downloaded, viewed or accessed over 10% of the content, or accessed and completed any assessment within the Course.

A. Provider Default occurs when:

- The course does not start on the agreed starting day.
- The course ceases to be provided at any time after it starts but before it is completed; or
- The course is not provided in full to the student because a sanction has been imposed on the Registered Provider under parts 6 and s. 46B(2) of any Provider default (ESOS Act).
